Investment strategy

The Manager will adhere to the pre-selected investment limitations set out in Clause 5 of the LPA and the ESG policy which will apply to the Fund. The Manager incorporates the ESG principles set out in the ESG Policy at the fund level through the following steps in the Manager's investment due diligence and decision process:

Screening and due diligence:

The initial part of the screening of potential investments involves desk research and assessment of the fund manager's response to an ESG DDQ.

The detailed assessment comprises the Manager's own screening tool taking into account the Master Fund manager's ESG approach and exposure, including an identification of market risks based on which geographies and industry sectors the Master Fund is exposed to. The Manager's ESG rating is accompanied by interviews with the ESG responsible from the manager of the Master Fund as an integral part of the due diligence process.

The Master Fund manager is assessed based on its policies, processes, in-house resources, and the level, quality, and frequency of its ESG reporting and monitoring. Furthermore, the Manager emphasizes the involvement and commitment from the senior management of such Master Fund manager.

Legal agreements:

The Manager will seek the relevant adherence to its ESG Policy (including reporting requirements) to the extent possible as covered by the fund documentation of the underlying investments.

Notwithstanding the above, the Manager takes a balanced view and also considers other options such as establishing legal obligations through a side letter including, but not limited to, “excuse investment participation rights”.

Investment decisions:

The Manager's investment team will ensure that key ESG risks that are identified from both assessments under its due diligence are presented to the Manager's Investment Committee and integrated into the final investment decision.
